SYMPOSIUM INFORMATION:

Wednesday 28 October (optional)

Workshops will be held, starting at 2:00pm on Wednesday October 28th: Funded registrants travelling to Wellington on that day must attend the workshops. These will include:

Time to Explore - with the keynote speaker.

Web2.0 & What is it?
Where are you? – A brief introduction to web 2.0 tools for learning and teaching and how you could use them with Peter Mellow

Funding for the Future - a clinic to discuss funding applications you may be planning.

The Academy will then host an early evening happy hour to allow you to get to know your fellow workshop members.

Thursday 29 - Friday 30 October (9.00 am – 5.50 pm)

The programme will include:

An exciting and provocative International key note speaker

Promising Practices – with past Prime Minister's Awardees

- 21st century learning & the future of learning: the role of 'educators'.
- The story that has come to be believed.....
- How did I get here?

Making a Voice – The academy gaining traction in the Tertiary Education Sector

Raising the Bar – The Inside story from a member of the tertiary teaching Awards Judging Panel - helping you to help others make an application

Building Communities – Highlights from two of the Academy regional groups and evidence of how the Academy is making a difference in those regions.

There will be ample time for networking and discussing teaching methods etc.
